Subject: Bush & Cheney at dinner

Even though I'm a Bush/Cheney supporter, I had to pass this one along...

George Bush and Dick Cheney are enjoying a celebration dinner at a fancy Washington restaurant. Their waitress approaches their table to take their order, and she is GORGEOUS.

She asks Cheney what he wants, and he replies, "I'll have the heart-healthy salad."

"Very good, sir," she replies, and turning to Bush she asks,

"And what do you want, Mr. President?"

Bush answers, "How about a quickie?"

Taken aback, the waitress slaps him and says, "I'm shocked and disappointed in you. I thought you were bringing in a new administration that was committed to high principles and morality. I'm sorry I voted for you."

With that, the waitress departed in a huff. Cheney leans over to Bush, and says, "Mr. President, I believe that's pronounced 'quiche'."
